

CANADIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

INTERNATIONAL AND AREAS STUDIES

SYMPOSIUM

Canada-USA Relations After 9/11

A Symposium

Wednesday, March 20th, 2002

The Faculty Club, Heyns Room, 9:00-4:00 PM

9:00 Welcoming Remarks: Nelson Graburn, Anthropology, Co-Chair of Canadian Studies, UC Berkeley

9:15 – 10:45 Panel 1: Borders and Boundaries: Porosity and Impermeability

CHAIR: Heather Nicol, Geography, State University of West Georgia
Glynn Custred, Anthropology, California State University, Hayward
Ted Thomas, Sociology, Mills College
Coline Campbell, Barrister, former Canadian Member of Parliament

11:00 – 12:30 Panel 2: Trade and Transit: Maintaining Flow and Growth

CHAIR: Michael Hawes, Executive Director, Canada-US Fulbright Program
John Vardalas, Visiting Scholar, Office for the History of Science and Technology,
UC Berkeley
Russell Kalmacoff, Rockmount Financial Corporation, Calgary, Alberta

12:30-2:00 Buffet Lunch. Speaker: The Honourable Wendell Sanford, Canadian Consul, Los Angeles.

2:00 – 3:30 Panel 3: Defence Amidst Differences: Meeting the Common Threat

CHAIR: Thomas G. Barnes, History and Law, Co-Chair of Canadian Studies, UC Berkeley
David Haglund, Political Studies, Queen's University
Arnold Beichman, Hoover Institution, Stanford University

7:00 pm Dinner (by invitation only) The Faculty Club (Seaborg Room)

Speaker: Dr. Michael K. Hawes, Executive Director, Canada-US Fulbright Program

This conference is made possible through the generous support of the Government of Canada.
The Canadian Studies Program would also like to recognize the ongoing support of International and Area Studies at the University of California at Berkeley.

All panel sessions are free and open to the public and the press.

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada